Of The Maine.
By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Washington, Feb. 18.—Senator Mason is making a fiery speech. He says the time has arrived for the administration to act. The cabinet was in session most of the morning, Secretary Sherman being absent on account of illness. Callers at the white house were informed that the President would not be able to give them an audience today. Assistant Secretary of War Meiklejohn started for Fortress Monroe to carry to his sick chief Secretary Alger, official news of the crisis and confer with him on the condition of the army. There is much concern over the non-arrival of the Viscaya at New York.

SPANISH DIVERS AT WORK.
By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Havana, Feb. 18.—Rough weather prevented anything being done on the Maine yesterday. Spanish divers are at work today about the hull and private parties are not allowed to approach the vessel. Sigbee has received an anonymous note warning
him to look out for his ship.

IN ONE GRAVE.
By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Havana, Feb. 18.—One grave held the bodies of all the victims. Over one hundred cabs were in the funeral procession which was over a mile long.
At the grave Sigbee shook General Parrados hand and thanked him with emotion.

TOOK DIVERS.
Key West, Feb. 18.—Steamship Bach
yesterday took divers to examine the Maine.

AS THE WRECK APPEARS.
Havana, Feb. 17.—On the night of the disaster to the Maine, a light wind from the southwest was blowing, and her head pointed in a southeasterly direction. She was moored in about 12 meters of water forward, and drew about 13 meters aft.

The Spanish cruiser, Alphonso XIII, was about 200 meters from the American battleship.
The explosion so disjointed and twisted the battleship that her remains
now appear like a pile of wreckage.
All the upper deck structure, turrets and guns are in a heap; one boiler has been blown out of its place and at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon was still smoking on deck.

The foremast and bow of the Maine
have collapsed and now only the ends
of her main masts are above water.
The boats of the Spanish cruiser Alphonso XIII have picked up a quantity of wreckage, including boats and a flag, and today ten more bodies were found in the harbor and taken to the morgue. It is impossible to identify them.

Contrary to the reports here yesterday, the divers have not made any investigation of the wreck, and the general opinion expressed in Spanish circles is that the explosion occurred
inside the Maine.

In New Quarters.
Beginning here about nine years ago on a very small scale, Mr. John J. Phoenix now occupies one of the largest and most commodious business houses in the city, the new three-store room two story building on South Davis street. The building is not yet quite complete, glass fronts yet to be put in and the elevator to finish.

The store room on South Elm street just vacated by Mr. Phoenix is to be used by J. E. Ferguson, of Burlington, for a dry goods store. Hence the removal of Mr. Phoenix to his new quarters before the building was completed. One room on the first floor will be used as the retail grocery department. In the centre is a large, well lighted and conveniently arranged office. The rear of the office and the north room, including the second floor, will be used in the wholesale department.
Mr. Phoenix is better equipped than ever to carry on his extensive business and we wish him much success.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.
The Local News from Our Neighbor
Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Feb. 18, '98.
An attempt was made to wreck the Asheboro train, two miles this side of Asheboro, last night.

Spikes were placed on the track and the front trucks were thrown off. It was evidently done by an expert, as the spikes were placed on the right side of the curve to throw the train from the track. Fortunately no one was hurt, as the train was not moving very fast.

Mrs. W. J. Armfield and her daughter, Miss Blanche, of "Sapona Side," attended the lecture last night.

Rev. Mead A. Kelsey has returned from Providence, R. I.

The new and handsome delivery
wagon of Harris & Brown, has arrived and is a fine piece of workmanship.

There came near being a fire in the southern part of town Wednesday night. Some one put oil on two houses belonging to Gardy and set them on fire. The houses were occupied by colored people.

A large audience attended the lecture at the Presbyterian church last night, given by Prof. Eben Alexander on "Modern Greece." Prof. Alexander is thoroughly familiar with his subject, as he was United States minister to Greece four years.

We are glad to see Arthur Mitchell
out again after a week's illness.

J. B. Best spent yesterday in Greensboro.

Dr. D. Reid Parker, of Trinity, was in the city yesterday.

Frank Mendenhall, who was hurt so severely recently, is getting along as well as could be expected.

W. J. Clary, of Greensboro, came up yesterday on his wheel. He had to return on the train this morning on account of the rain.

The Alma Furniture company have purchased the stock of goods manufactured by the High Point Table Co.
and they will add tables to their line
of business.

Prof. Alexander left this morning for Charlotte, where he will lecture tonight.

A. G. W. Thompson has secured the services of his brother of Danville, in the bicycle business.

Harry B. Laws, route agent on the main line, is spending a few days here with his brother Tom.

Mrs. Nellie Makepeace left today for Franklinsville to spend a few days.

J. L. Hartsfield, of Newberne, is stopping at Jarrell's for a few days.

The engine on the High Point and Asheboro railroad broke down this morning. An engine from Spencer went to her assistance.

Flatly Received Here.

The addresses on behalf of the democratic, populist and silver republican parties, signed respectively by Messrs. Jones, Butler and Towne, advising a union of forces on the financial issue, have not been received with much cordiality here.
Few democrats endorse the project,
comparatively few populists do and there is absolutely no republicans here who favor the scheme.

A prominent fusionist said last night that the project was impracticable and could not be carried out.
Congressional fusion on the lines projected, he said, would be out of the question with the existing conditions
in North Carolina.—Raleigh Post.

All Ready to Leave.

*Alex Brookes, colored, was arrested yesterday on a peace warrant, tried by Squire Lehman and bound over to keep the peace with all citizens of North Carolina in general and Jim
Williams and sister in particular.
Alex had threatened to send Jim and sister to the land where they returneth
not. He was preparing himself to hit the grit and go to parts unknown when arrested. In one pocket he had a half pound of Arbuckle coffee; in another some bread biscuits; and still in another, a pound of raw rat side meat and a half pound of sugar. His bond was fixed at $200. Unable to give it, he was committed to jail.—
Winston Journal.

Burbank Block Burned.

Springfield, Mass., Feb. 17.—The entire Burbank block was burned early this morning.

CONGRESS IN UGLY MOOD.
Cuban Correspondence To Be Sent
in Soon.

MAY PROVE A FIRE-BRAND.

Sigsbee Cables Why The Bodies
Were Not Brought Home—Forty
More Come Ashore.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The expectation that the Cuban correspondence will be sent to congress is causing anxiety. If the full correspondence is sent in giving the real condition of the starving reconcentrados and making public the confidential communications of Lee and the other officers the action may be a fire brand that will set congress a flame. Senators and representatives are prepared to follow the reading of the correspondence with resolutions for the recognition of Cuban belligerency and some will declare for war outright. Their resolutions and their discussion are dangerous. The President is especially anxious to keep congress in restraint.
Nothing alarming occurred up to noon.

CABLE FROM SIGSBEE.

A cable from Sigbee sent last night arrived today. It reviewed the funeral and explains why the bodies cannot be brought home. Forty bodies have come ashore and are unrecognizable. The recovery of the Maine's battery is impossible until the regular wrecking outfit arrives. Secretary Long cabled approval of this action
and expressed thanks to the people of Havana.

HOLDING UP DIVERS.

Havana, Feb. 18.—The Spanish prevented Americans from diving unless accompanied by Spaniards.
So far 97 bodies have been recovered.

Where He Was Hit.

February 17, 1895.

Mr. Robert Hancock, Newberne, N.C.:
"Dear Sir—You are hereby notified that at a meeting of the board of internal improvement, consisting of the Governor, Hon. C. A. Cook, of Warren, and the Hon. J. L. C. Harris, of Wake, this day held, you were removed as a member of the board of directors on the part of the state in and for the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad company—this order to take effect on and after the 22d day of February, 1898.

"Daniel Russell,
"President.
"J. E. Alexander,
"Secretary Board of Internal Improvements."

Stage Properties Burned.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Feb. 18.—The Southwalk
storage warehouse in which the properties of the Lyceum theatre, consisting of everything connected with the plays of Hamlet, Richard III, Macbeth and Peter the Great, was destroyed by fire.

Play-House Burned.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Worcester, Mass., Feb. 18.—The Bijan opera house was burned today.
The manager and his wife had a narrow escape. They were rescued by the firemen from the cornice of the building.

Francis E. Willard Dead.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Feb. 18.—The body of Francis E. Willard, the temperance reformer, who died this morning, will be taken to Evanston, Ill., after service here on Sunday, stopping at Churchville, N. Y., for a brief service at the old home of the Willards.
Messages of sympathy are coming in from all over the world today.

Reed on Cuba.

Jacksonville, Fla., Feb. 16.—An alleged statement made by Speaker
Reed to a friend has just been divulged here. He said: "No nation can brook insults and evidence of bad faith like those contained in De Lome's letter. The United States government will maintain its dignity.
The time to act in this Cuban matter
is near at hand."

MRS. GEO. C. HECK DEAD.
Remains Will Arrive Here Tonight
from Asheville.

The following telegram received in this city this morning from R. Percy Gray, who has been with his sister in Asheville the past two weeks, explains itself and conveys sorrowful news to the large circle of friends of the deceased in Greensboro:

"Asheville, Feb. 18.

"Mrs. Heck died at 1:30 this morning. We will arrive at Greensboro tonight. Burial 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon."

Mrs. Heck's home was in Raleigh, but, owing to failing health she has been in Asheville for several months.
She was the daughter of the late Col.
Julius A. Gray, of this city, and up to the time of her marriage with Mr. Geo.
C. Heck and removal from here, was a shining light and greatly admired in Greensboro circles.

Many hearts here are now pained and saddened beyond expression at the news of her demise. The remains will reach Greensboro tonight over the Southern at 9:52.

HER PRESENCE OF MIND.

Averted a Terrible Disaster—Fires
Raging in the Mountains.

Lenoir, N. C., Feb. 17.—During the hardest windstorm yesterday afternoon, ever known to our citizens, the roof of the kitchen to Hon. Edmund Jones' residence caught on fire. There was no one at home except Miss Sadie Jones and the cook. Miss Sadie's presence of mind is the talk of the town. She immediately telephoned to central and 250 persons with the fire outfit were on the way in a few minutes. Miss Sadie after telephoning went to the bed and took the bed clothes, and wet them in a tub of water, and Mr. Clifton Whitted who arrived about that time, climbed to the roof, and with the wet clothes subdued the fire before the engine arrived.
It was a narrow escape.

Fires have been raging in the mountains for two days, and the wind yesterday, and last night brought the fire within two miles of town. Much damage to fences and timber is the result and it may be houses have been burned. One man about Patterson lost his barn.—News and Observer.

Fusion in Minnesota.

Minneapolis, Feb. 16.—Fusion, or as its advocates call it, co-operation, will, from present indications, be the programme of the Minnesota populists.
The sojourn of Senator Butler, Gen.
Weaver and others has borne fruit,
and with little opposition the state central committee today decided to hold a state convention on June 15.

The Middle-of-the-Roaders had advocated an earlier date and the date selected has in view the holding of state conventions by other silver parties at the same time.

Senator Butler, Gen. Weaver and others addressed an audience at the Exposition building last night, and the banquet following was largely attended.

A Call to Kill.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer writes:
The preliminary trial of W. S.
Browning, who killed his father-in-law, C. B. Strickland, last Friday in the southern part of this county, is in progress here. The evidence is all in Browning's favor and shows that Strickland not only made innumerable threats to kill him, but actually said he felt called upon by the Almighty to kill Browning, and that if he were hanged for it it would only cheat him out of a few years of life.

Hood Says Maine Is Lost.

Late this afternoon Secretary Long received the following important telegram from Admiral Seward at Key West, Fla.: "In the opinion of Lieutenant Hood, of the Maine, who has just arrived from Havana, the Maine
can never again be utilized as a ship.
He described the whole forward part of the ship as completely collapsed,
where the shock of the explosion was the heaviest. Photograph of wreck sent department today by mail."— Wash. Star.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money
if it fails to cure. 25c.

Notice.

It is urgent that State and county taxes be paid at once. The money is needed to meet current expenses and state taxes. Will advertise land for taxes soon. Fair warning to all.
Very Respectfully,
J. A. HOSKINS, Sheriff.

FULL MEASURE OF REDRESS.
If American Lives Were Destroyed
By Treachery.

CONGRESS STILL CONSERVATIVE?

A Member of Maine's Crew Declares
That He Saw an Object Ap- proaching the Ship.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 18.—It is evident that Congress will not in any way embarrass the administration in its efforts to solve the mystery of the Maine disaster. Until there is positive and convincing proof that the Maine was destroyed by treachery, the present conservatism of Congress will not give place to offensive action. The senators and representatives are very anxious to learn the real facts however and congress will surely exact full measure of recompense if American lives were sacrificed through a murderous assault. It is expected that the President will send a message to congress asking for an appropriation to defray the expenses incident upon the disaster.

TALE OF A SAILOR.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Key West, Feb. 17.—A member of the Maine's crew now lying in the hospital
here says he saw a black object approaching the Maine just before the disaster. He suspected foul play.

Mr. C. M. Vanstort had his little girl's eyes with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vanstort sent the old lenses with an explanation to the oculist who had given the prescription and in reply received the

The controversy between Webster's Weekly and the Winston Republican is passing into its thirty-first edition.

The Southern should be ashamed of itself for allowing so small a thing as the narrow gauge to give it a switch-ing.

The Honorable Hallelujah Ayer has abated no whit of his intention to eternally flabbergast the democratic party if it don't be good.

We do hope Mr. Marion Butler will not get lost in a blizzard in the cool northwest. When should we ever look upon anybody like him again?

The witnesses in the Zola trial continue to declare that they are infinitely sorry, but a previous engagement prevents them from telling the truth.

It is shocking to see such an out-cropping of anarchy among those who are such bitter enemies of it as was manifested over one little railway switch up at Hickory.

If diplomats hereafter will employ a "short and easy" system of stenography for their confidential correspondence it will remove all possibility of unpleasant after effects.

Whatever foolish thing a North Carolina legislature may do it will hardly emulate Kentucky by asking one of our present senators to resign. The Tarheel sense of humor will prevent that.

Representative Dingley is not an orator.—Exchange.

No, Representative Dingley is exclusively a financier. He touched the puny body of the nation's credit and it instantly expired.

In removing or ordering removed Robert Hancock as president of the Atlantic and North Carolina railway Governor Russell does well. As a Governor of North Carolina that much was expected of him.

The Telegram acknowledges a book of exceedingly handsome designs called "Public Buildings" by Frank P. Milburn of Charlotte. These are designs of buildings really erected under Mr. Milburn's supervision.

Once the gates of progress are thrown open we then can march to fairer fields of victory. The Agrarian war led by Gracchus in Rome was justifiable; Wat Tyler's rebellion in England was for a righteous cause; Moore's Utopia was a grand thought; having all things in common was a Christian sentiment; to work in common, to divide in common as the colony at Jamestown did was neighborly; but none of these things were expedient. These things the dominant parties know and they only wait for us to hang ourselves. A few meaningless platitudes will do them.—W. R. Lindsay, in Progressive Farmer.

Then surely, surely they are done, well done. Here is only a bunch of platitudes from a three column posy of 'em. "To divide in common," yes; that is the gradual drift of populism. To work in common," no; that is too slow a process. But in the name of the initiative and referendum whose Utopia was "Moore's?" It may have been a grand thought but it was akin to the "Last Rose of Summer" or was it "acquaint" with the "Harp That Once Through &c?" And why if the Utopia was a grand thought should the dominant parties "wait for us to hang ourselves?" And who are the dominant parties? And when, oh, when will you hang yourselves and can we be of any small assistance?

The one comforting phase of the Maine disaster is the manner in which it has been received by the American people. There has been genuine sorrow for the brave men who went to their death, yet there has been no foolish outcry against any one, no call for a war with Spain when Spain may be innocent. While there are many who believe there was foul play, the vast majority have suspended judgment until such time as a competent court of inquiry shall fix the responsibility. It shows a largeness of mind, a clearness of vision that is most creditable.

Treasury receipts under the Dingley law are now running a million dollars a day, and when the imports of wool and sugar begin next month they will be all that is needed to meet the running expenses of the government.—Hickory Press.

Ah, that so ye rosy prophet? Did it not occur to you that similar visions have been proclaimed by the republicans press ever since Mr. Dingley's deficit provider began operations. But those "running expenses"—they are still entirely too swift of foot for the revenues.

Our esteemed and patriarchal contemporary, the Winston Republican, continues its time-honored custom of expounding for the benefit of democrats the nature and essence of true democracy. Who pays the piper?

Even With Her Cross-Examiner.

"Now," said the lawyer who was conducting the cross-examination, "will you please state when and where you met this man?"

"I think," said the lady with the sharp nose, "that it was—"

"Never mind what you think," interrupted the lawyer. "We want facts here. We don't care what you think, and we haven't any time to waste in listening to what you think. Now, tell us where and when it was that you first met this man."

The witness made no reply.

"Come, come," urged the lawyer. "I demand an answer to my question."

"Still there was no response from the witness."

"Your Honor," said the lawyer, turning to the Court, "I think I am entitled to answer to the question I have put."

"The witness will please answer the question," said the Court in impressive tones.

"Can't," said the lady.

"The Court doesn't care to hear what I think, does it?"

"No."

"Then there's no use questioning me any further. I am not a lawyer. I can't talk without thinking."

So they called the next witness.—Cleveland Leader.

Mellstrup's Letter.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 17.—A special to the News from Bay City, Mich., says: A letter was received today from Elmer Mellstrup, a gunner on the battleship Maine, dated February 11th, addressed to his mother, in which Mellstrup wrote that he would not be surprised if they should be blown up any day; that the ship was surrounded with torpedoes and could not leave the harbor without consent and direction of the Spanish authorities. Mellstrup's letter says: "The Spaniards have a couple of gunboats and a cruiser, and there are two German gunboats. The guns of Morro Castle are pointed at us as I write. The whole bottom of the harbor is covered with torpedoes, so that if they did not want to let us out, we would not be able to go very well. We are lying between the Spanish and German men-of-war, and they have picket boats out all night watching us."

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

PRISONER ATTACKS THE JUDGE.

Infuriated at His Sentence, Springs at Judge McCormick.

Elizabeth, N. J. Feb. 17.—John Ryan created a sensation in the Union county court today by attempting to assault Judge Thomas McCormick when the latter sentenced him to state prison. Ryan had been convicted of assaulting Police Officer Mulhearn of Elizabeth. When arraigned for sentence a week ago he pleaded for mercy claiming that this was his first offence. An investigation proved Ryan to be an old criminal and jail bird. This morning Judge McCormick spoke scathingly of the prisoner's past history and sentenced him to two years in State prison.

The sentence had hardly been pronounced when Ryan jumped over the railing, uttering obscene oaths, and rushed toward Judge McCormick. Several of the court officers seized the infuriated man and a terrific struggle ensued. Ryan was biting, kicking and crying out to be allowed to wreak his vengeance on the Judge. It was not until he had been severely clubbed that the officers were able to carry him to a cell.

The Beginning and the End.

Judge—Did you see the beginning of this trouble?

Witness—I did, your Honor; it occurred five years ago.

Judge—Why, how is that?

Witness—It began when the minister pronounced them man and wife.

The Grandest Remedy.

Mr. R. B. Graevie, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds and consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Are You
Always Tired?

WINDSOR, N. C., May 24, '97.

Five years ago I was completely run down from general debility. My liver didn't work, I had indigestion, was just as nervous as I could be, and was always tired. The least exertion would bring on shortness of breath and it was a drag to me to keep up. A friend of mine who had been cured by using Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy told me to take it. I bought a dozen bottles and took it just because I knew I would have to try something. I suffered greatly from wakefulness, would lay awake often the greater part of the night, unable to rest or sleep. When I was on the second bottle I got so I could sleep, and when I had finished the six bottles I WAS WELL. Indigestion cured, that shortness of breath cured, and I feel like another person. Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy is a wonderful medicine. It did me more good than anything I ever took in my life.

Joe Rosenbacher, a prominent Winston merchant, was here this morning, returning from a northern trip.

Miss Lella Lewis, of Virginia and Fannie Kyle, of Fayetteville, are visiting Miss Mary Walker Fry, 428 Arlington street.

Judge and Mrs. Norwood, of Waynesville, arrived here last night and will spend some days at the Benbow. Their daughter, Miss Emeline Norwood, of the Normal College is with them.

Hon. A. Leazer, of Mooresville, ex-speaker of the house of representatives, and who, under the last democratic administration as general manager of the state penitentiary, made that institution more than self-sustaining, was in the city today, stopping at the McAdoo.

Got His Bride By Mail.

Hoboken, N. J., Feb. 16.—Louis Martin, a special officer of No. 327 Washington street, answered an advertisement in a matrimonial paper and got so well acquainted with Miss Hattie Spice, of Coxsackie, that he married her, despite parental objection. His wife's parents gave him the cold shoulder, and then the bride disappeared. Martin has now sued the father for $20,000 damages for alienating her affections. He has learned that she has fallen to $30,000.

Railroad to Tanganyika.

London, Feb. 15.—According to a despatch to the Daily Mail from Cape Town a considerable part of the pet scheme of Cecil Rhodes for the construction of a British railroad from Cape Town to Cairo is about to be realized.

The details have been settled for the extension of the Bulawayo line to Lake Tanganyika at a cost of $5,000,000. The line will connect with the Gwal coal fields.

It will cross the Zambesi River 100 miles below Victoria Falls. It is said that the engineering difficulties are exceedingly few.

International American Bank.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 16.—The bill incorporating the International American Bank was favorably reported today by the senate foreign relations committee. The capital stock is fixed at $5,000,000, with power to increase to $25,000,000. The bill requires one branch to be open in Mexico, one in the West Indies, and two in South America within two years.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Bowles & Grissom have a new ad today. Read it.

R. A. Gray, of Baltimore, was at the Benbow today.

Dr. H. B. Battle, of Winston, was in the city last night.

O. L. Smith, of Charlotte, was at the Benbow this morning.

Mrs. J. H. Coleman, we are glad to state, is convalescing from a prolonged illness.

Lemons at very low prices are advertised by Lindau today. Read his ad on the editorial page of this paper.

The Kandy Kitchen has a new ad in this paper today, advertising all kinds of bread fresh from their bakery, candies, fruits, etc.

Tomorrow and Monday Shrier will inaugurate a special shoe sale at greatly reduced prices. See his big ad in The Telegram today.

Are you looking for bargains in shoes? Then read the large ad of Shrier, the shoe man on this page. Some big cuts are made in prices.

Judge W. L. Norwood, wife and daughter, of Waynesville, are spending the day at the Benbow and will leave in the morning for Washington, N. C.

H. C. Williams, representing Augustin Daly's Comedy Company, is in the city stopping at the Benbow. This company will present "A Night Off" at the Academy of Music on Friday night Feb. 25.

There are now 29 prisoners in jail here, 28 of whom are awaiting trial at the coming term of court, and 1 is serving out an old sentence. Of the 28 to be tried 26 are colored, the remaining 2 are white.

Shrier enlarges his space today to tell of some special cut prices in shoes at his store. Those in need of shoes should avail themselves of such sales as these to secure the best goods at remarkably low figures.

We call attention to Hudson's special ad for Saturday in this paper. The display made at Hudson's on Saturday in the way of all kinds of dressed fowl and other good things to eat is always tempting and tomorrow will be no exception.

Keep in mind the Karger Concert at the State Normal and Industrial College on Monday night Feb. 21st. The fact that the company has been engaged by the management of the Normal is sufficient guarantee that it will be highly entertaining. Arrangements will be made with liverymen to carry persons from the city at ten cents a trip.

In the dusk of last evening three dusky damsels grew hilarious and the merry old days when the "Meadow" was in bloom rose before their mental gaze, and they evidently imagined that those days of revelry had returned, that they were again in the meadow and that the lights were dim as of yore; but Policemen Weatherly and Scott came along and took them in before it began to rain.

German Tonight.

The Crocail club will give the last dance of the season at Bogart Hall tonight. Music will be furnished by the Greensboro orchestra and a most pleasant occasion is promised.

"THE DIPLOMATS" LAST NIGHT.

Large Audience Greeted the Greensboro Amateurs at Academy of Music.

The amateurs of the Greensboro Dramatic Club appeared before a numerous audience, including the majority of the fashionable folks, at the Academy of Music last evening. The Carolinians were given a cordial reception, the generous applause indicating the pleasure of the audience in the very creditable performance of the visitors.

"The Diplomats," a three-act farce, was the title of the play, in which the following cast participated:

Leopold Fitz Jocelyn, an English Diplomat—G. P. Talbott.
Count Vladimir Evertoff, a Russian Diplomat—C. R. Brown.
Timothy Chadwick, a Retired Tanner—J. S. Michaux.

Baron Kronikoff and Major Stonideff, Russian Soldiers—G. A. Rankin and William McAdoo.
Spinks, Fitz Jocelyn's valet—J. A. Gilmer.

Richards, a butler—G. A. Rankin.
Jessie Chadwick, Timothy's daughter—Miss Nettie Sjoan.

Kitty, a maid—Miss May Small.
Gloriana, a charming widow—Miss Lillian Staples.

Tonight the company will play "Our Boys," and another large audience should greet them.—Danville Register.

MAKING A RECORD.

An Enterprise that Home People Are Patronizing.

The sales of the Simpson-Shields Shoe Company yesterday amounted $2,673. This while a good day was not greatly disproportionate to other days in its sales. This firm has only been in business something like a year. When they began there were many Job's comforters to say "you can not make a living here." The sequel shows quite the contrary. The business of the firm has shown a steady growth from the very beginning. They keep five traveling men on the road all the time but a large part of their business is made up of mail orders and so careful are they in filling orders that when customers are secured they are always retained.

This is the only firm in the state that wholesales shoes exclusively and it is gratifying to know that they are receiving so large a share of the patronage of the state. This is as it should be. Tarheel merchants are beginning to learn that when goods can be had at home for the same money as in New York or Baltimore and save freight, it pays to buy at home.

Social at Doctor Stamey's.

A merry party of young people met in social converse at the residence of Dr. E. L. Stamey on South Elm street last night. The young ladies were smiling and bewitchingly sweet, the young men did their best at gallantry and the ringing peals of laughter attested the fact that all were having a good time.

At about eleven o'clock refreshments were served and the guests departed with many expressions of thanks to Doctor and Mrs. Stamey for the opportunity of spending so pleasant an evening in their home and feeling that they wanted to visit them again.

An Interesting Meeting.

The Century Club meeting was well attended yesterday evening and the members present were rewarded with entertaining papers and talks on the always delightful author, Robert Louis Stevenson.

Prof. J. Y. Joyner gave an interesting talk on "Stevenson's Place in Literature."

The papers on "Treasure Island," by Mrs. B. C. Sharp, and on "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," by Robert D. Douglas, were not prepared.

Miss Applewhite read a discriminating paper on "Stevenson's Poetry for Children."
